4. Job Description - overall responsibilities, key duties and reporting line

The role

The European Union Programmes Agency (EUPA) is Malta's National Agency for Erasmus+ and the European Solidarity Corps. The Communications Officer will support the day-to-day delivery and development of the Agency's communications and outreach across social media, website content, email campaigns, internal communication, media, events and public engagement.

The Communications Officer will be expected to confidently and successfully accomplish core communications activities, be proactive in the use of new technologies, in learning and applying new tools and techniques in response to changing audience expectations and communication trends. Specialist expertise in every communication channel is not expected. The Communications Officer will be expected to be proactive in identifying opportunities to improve how programme information and results are communicated to diverse audiences.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Plan and maintain EUPA's communication and outreach calendar, keeping priorities, deadlines, approvals and scheduled content on track.
- Write, edit and adapt clear content for different audiences and formats, including social media, the website, newsletters, email campaigns, press material and presentations.
- Create and adapt professional visual and basic multimedia content using Canva or equivalent tools.
- Publish and manage content through the Agency's social media platforms, website systems and Mailchimp, while monitoring routine responses and directing programme-specific enquiries appropriately.
- Work proactively with colleagues to gather accurate information, follow up on missing input, identify good practices and turn technical programme information into accessible, audience-friendly communication.
- Promote programme opportunities, funded projects, results and impact, and support beneficiaries in meeting EU communication and visibility requirements.
- Organise communication activities, outreach initiatives, promotional campaigns, information sessions, media interventions and public events to enhance the visibility of the Agency and its programmes. This includes preparing promotional material, briefings, scripts and follow-up communication. Such activities may occasionally take place during evenings and weekends to maximise stakeholder engagement and public participation.

- 6.2 Prior to requesting recognition statements as per article 6.1 above in respect of their qualifications, candidates should first consult the “List of Licensed Providers and Accredited Programmes” of the MFHEA which can be accessed on <https://mfhea.mt/list-of-licensed-providers-and-accredited-programmes/>. Applicants are exempt from submitting a recognition statement as mentioned in article 6.1 if they are presenting qualifications listed therein. A print of such list including the qualification is to be presented by the applicant.
- 6.3 No recognition statement by MQRIC is required in respect of qualifications issued by Maltese self-accrediting institutions, these being the University of Malta, MCAST and ITS; or any Maltese qualification that has been accredited by the MFHEA, which on the certificates states: ‘The Malta Further & Higher Education Authority deems this certificate to be MQF ____’.

7. Selection of candidates, publication of results and petitions on the results

- 7.1 Eligible applicants will be interviewed by a Selection Board to assess their suitability for the post.
- 7.2 Candidates must provide an original, official identity document (identity card or passport) for verification at the interview.
- 7.3 Candidates must invariably produce original certificates for verification at the interview.
- 7.4 The result of the interview will remain valid for a period of one (1) year from the date of publication. The result of the interview will serve to fill vacancies recurring in the particular post during the validity period.
- 7.5 Petitions objecting to the result are to be submitted by email at hr.eupa@gov.mt. Petitions are to reach the European Union Programmes Agency within ten (10) working days from the date of publication of the results of selection.
