- Jean Monnet Actions in the field of Higher Education: Modules, Chairs and Centres of Excellence

Deadline - 1 February at 17:00 (Brussels time)

The Jean Monnet Actions in higher education support teaching and research in European Union studies worldwide. These activities promote active European citizenship and the founding values of respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and human rights. They also aim to spread knowledge about EU policies and their impact on citizens' daily lives. The actions also function as a means of public diplomacy towards third countries, promoting EU values and enhancing the visibility of the EU. They can take the form of modules, chairs, and centres of excellence.

- Jean Monnet actions for other fields of education and training

Deadline - 1 February at 17:00 (Brussels time)

Promoting active citizenship and shared values of freedom, tolerance, and non-discrimination requires understanding the European Union's objectives and functioning. Teachers and trainers are seeking professional development opportunities to develop inclusive classrooms, use ICT, and teach about the EU in engaging ways. The goal is to address widespread knowledge and disinformation, fostering disenchantment about the Union and its policies.

- Jean Monnet Policy Debate

Deadline - 1 February at 17:00 (Brussels time)

Jean Monnet Networks in higher education aim to collect, share, and discuss research findings, course content, and products. In 2024, three networks will be established: one on internal policy, one on external policy, and one on EU-Africa. The networks will provide regular feedback on advanced practices and contribute to the debate. In other fields, Jean Monnet Networks will foster the creation of networks for schools and vocational training institutes to exchange good practices, share experiences, and build knowledge on European issues.
